The wish list is always about making a video game: not artwork, not "analog" or physical stuff, not music, not toys, not puzzles. Video games only!

If someone didn't make a gift for a wish-list they received this year, they shouldn't be allowed to participate in the next one. "Getting something for nothing" isn't right/fair.

- I think the scope of some people's projects pressures me into making something really large. I wish there was like a time limit to how much you could work on it. Maybe there should be a "white elephant" this year.

- I would also be OK with a month.

- Really just need guidelines to avoid over-scoping on games
